Attached are full details of all available coordinating packages. Why I love Amanda and recommend her to you:

She is organized. She stays on top of everything. She takes the stress off of you and makes certain your event runs smoothly. I have seen the difference in weddings with her and without her. There is no comparison. In addition, I have observed other coordinators missing events while they were texting or eating; this is not Amanda. She is fully devoted to you and your event from start to finish. Contact her for more information.
